

The Song of Moses

Capo 4th Fret

Am

I will

sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the

G

Dm

horse and his rider hath he

Am

G Am

thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he

Dm

Em

is my God, and I will pre-

Am

pare him an habitation; my

Dm

G

father's God, and I will ex-

Am

alt him.

The

LORD is a man of war: the

LORD is his name. Pharaoh's

Dm
chariots and his host hath he

Am G Am
cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned

Dm
in the Red sea. The

G Em
depths have covered

Am
them: they

Dm G sank into the bottom as a

Am
stone.

Thy right

hand, O LORD, is become

glorious in power: thy right

Dm
hand, O LORD, hath dashed in

Am G Am
pieces the enemy. And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast

Dm
overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou

G Em
sentest forth thy wrath, which con-

Am
sumed them as stubble. And

Dm G
with the blast of thy nostrils the

waters were gathered together, the

Dm G
floods stood upright as an heap, and the

Am G Am
depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

The

enemy said, I will pursue,

G I will overtake, I will

Dm
divide the spoil; my lust shall be

Am G Am
satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall

Dm
destroy them. Thou didst

G Em
blow with thy wind, the sea covered

Am
them: they

Dm G
sank as lead in the mighty

Am
waters.

Who is

Dm
like unto thee, O LORD,

Am
among the gods? who is

Dm
like thee, glorious in

Am
holiness,

Dm
fearful in praises,

Am
doing wonders? Thou

Em
stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

Thou

in thy mercy hast led

forth the people which

Dm
thou hast redeemed: thou hast

Am G Am
guid-ed them in thy strength unto thy

Dm
holy habitation. The

people shall hear, and be afraid:

Am
sorrow shall take hold on the in-

Dm G
habitants of Philis-

Am
tia. Then the

G Em
dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the

Am
mighty men of Moab,

Dm G
trembling shall take hold up-

on them; all the in-

G Em
habitants of Canaan sh-

all melt away.

Dm G
Fear and dread shall fall up-

on them by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as

G
still as a stone; till thy

Dm
people pass over, O LORD, till the

Am G Am
people pass over, which thou hast purchased. Thou shalt

Dm
bring them in, and

plant them in the mountain of

thine inheritance, in the

Dm place, O LORD, which thou hast made for G

Am thee to dwell in, in the

G Sanctuary, O Lord, which Em

Am thy hands have established. The

Dm LORD shall reign for ever and G

Am ever.

For the

Dm horse of Pharaoh went in Am with his chariots

Dm and with his horsemen

Am into the sea, and the

Dm LORD brought again the waters

Am of the sea upon them;

but the

Em
children of Israel

went on dry land in the

midst of the

sea.

The Song of the Lamb

Great and marvelous

Amaj7
are thy works,

D
Lord God Al-

A E
mighty;

just and true

Amaj7
are thy ways,

thou King of

saints.

Who shall not fear thee,

O Lord,

and glorify

thy name?

For

thou only art holy: For
